

Safe Disclosure of Wrongdoing

F 4-02

Disclosures of wrongdoing may be made in writing to the Designated Officer of Pembina Hills Public Schools, or directly to the Public Interest Commissioner. Disclosures may be made using this form, or if the individual chooses, an email or other written disclosure may be submitted but must include all the contents of this form (emails must be sent to a private email service and not the Division's system). If Individuals choose, they may make a complaint online to the Public Interest Commissioner rather than using this form by using the Complaint of Wrongdoing Form. Wrongdoings that must be reported and other information/procedures can be found in AP 40-02 Public Interest Disclosure and the Public Interest Disclosure \(Whistleblower Protection\) Act.
