

Alternate Site Request

F 7-108

Alternate site fee (per student): $50 All alternate site requests must be applied for annually.

Note: This form is to be used when a parent / guardian desires any alternate or unusual transportation arrangements. Should the alternate site request require payment for in-town or rural bus service, the alternate site fee will be waived.

Alternate bus service requests may include those below:

1. Drop off or pick up at a location other than the student's residence (or usual point of pick up or drop off)
2. Riding a different school bus morning and afternoon
3. Needing to be registered on more than one bus

Please Note:

- Regular bus routes will not be extended to accommodate alternate transportation requests.
- Alternate transportations applications may take up to 5 days to process because we must determine if there is room on the bus to accommodate the child.
- Parents/guardians must inform the bus driver, school and transportation department of their child's schedule.
- If the bus becomes full and more space is needed for eligible riders your approval may be revoked.

I understand and agree to the terms and conditions listed above.
